BRIEF BACKGROUND OF MOSADIMOGOLO TRADING

Mosadimogolo Trading is a South African company owned and managed by historically disadvantaged individual. Mosadimogolo Trading embraces a committed service of providing services of excellence and it is within the context of this philosophy that we pursue opportunities in the public and private market, both independently and in association with interested strategic partners.

VISION

To bring together the best professionals and creative thinkers to produce world class services that will develop ground breaking solutions for effective use, the principle being quality in all things.

MISSION STATEMENT

We will focus on solving our clients' facilities related challenges, acting as a trusted partner and advisor to ensure that our clients total cost of property ownership is kept to the minimum standard.

GOAL

Our goal is to develop proudly South African company that reflects the demographic of our country through a recruitment strategy that ensure the adequate representation of all population groups, continue to contribute positively towards broad based black empowerment procurement policies, support the talented youth and promote skills development

VALUES

Successful facilities management is more than just creating a functional workplace, its creating that function to meet the evolving demands of our core business.

Integrity – we believe our business should display our integrity in its dealings with our clients and give them excellent service.

Knowledge and Expertise – we strive all the time to give our best in terms of skills transfer and knowledge.

Passion – we only have management that is passionate with our business.

Fairness – to do work without putting all the parties at a disadvantage manner, that is not in line with the codes of good practice.

OBJECTIVES

Provide professional services and thus help community by improving living standards creating employment opportunities and transferring skills and knowledge. To support government in job creation and business opportunities for the people of South Africa and all who lives in it. To enhance empowerment by running our company with the majority shareholding from previously disadvantaged communities.

Should Mosadimogolo Trading receive opportunities to partner with your esteemed companies, as it has only black South Africans who own the company.

It is strategically placed to give meaningful BBBEE component top any consortium or joint venture that it works with.

Mosadimogolo Trading is committed to other empowerment pillars such as management representative, skills transfer, employment equity, enterprise development and corporate social investment.

We pride ourselves in every project that we take on.
